MATH50010 - Probability for Statistics
Unseen Problem 7

Suppose a flea hops randomly on the vertices of a triangle, with all jumps equally likely. Find the probability that after n hops, the flea is back where it started.